Inverness Golf Club – General Play Scores

Under WHS (World Handicap System) you can submit General Play scores (i.e. a casual game) to count towards your Handicap Index at any time over a measured course.

In order to submit a General Play score, you must:

- Follow the Rules of Golf.
- Play with at least one other person.
- Play on a course with a current Course Rating and Slope Rating.
- Play during an active season.
- Ensure the round is in accordance with Rules of Handicapping.
- You must register for your General Play score before you tee-off.

How to Submit a General Play Score

Scores at Inverness Golf Club can be returned on the PSI Terminals at the Club or via HDID (HowDidiDo) or on the Scottish Golf App.

Scores from other Golf Clubs can be returned using the Scottish Golf App or if the course you are playing uses the Scottish Golf system, then you can also Register your round and submit your scores via the Scottish Golf Touchscreen at that Club.

General Play Scores returned using the Scottish Golf App or via HDID (HowDidiDo) should be submitted in the vicinity of the relevant golf club.
